Recently Elected Officers Of Student Govt., Y. W.

To Be Installed In The Near Future

On March 10th the BULLET delighted the entire student body with a novel benefit in the form of a broadcast. Featured on the broadcast were the returns of the Student Government and Y. W. C. A. elections.

Leighton Stevens, usually known on the hill as Steve was elected president of the student body for the '39-'40. She will be assisted by Jeannette Cooper as vice-president, Juanita Lassiter as secretary and Peggy Snow as treasurer.

Leighton Stevens who is to replace the capable Mary Burgess is one of the stellar figures on the hill. As president of the Junior Class Miss Stevens held an outstanding position and at the first Devil-Goat rally she became known to the incoming Freshmen as the "head goat". "Steve," who is from Roanoke, is a member of the Glee Club, the Mary Washington Players and the A. A. Council.

Miss Cooper who will take over the vice-presidential duties of Elizabeth Wilson, has reaped appreciable experience as the able president of the Sophomore Class. It was she, you remember, who conducted the popular Jitter-Bug Contest.

The outgoing secretary, Nan Birchett will turn over her notebook and pen to Lassiter. Miss Lassiter who has been active in many organizations on the hill is an outstanding member of the Mary Washington Players.

The treasurer's keys will go from Charlotte Brookes to Peggy Snow, a capable member of the sophomore class and an outstanding member of Alpha Phi Sigma and the Science Club.

With these capable and efficient officers we can be assured of another year of noteworthy student government.

In the Y. W. C. A. elections Mary Estes was chosen prexy, Marguerite Jennings, vice-president; Mary Lou Wilcox, secretary; Betty Carter, treasurer, and Carol Jordan, Freshman Commissioner.

At present Miss Estes, who will take over the duties of Maude Rae Smith, is Freshman Commissioner, and she has served well in Y. W. C. A. activities. She was chosen one of the six outstanding girls of the student body.

Miss Jennings, who will take over the vice-presidency from Miss Wilcox was also an active member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, on which she served as chairman of the properties committee.

Sarah Ann Chandler, the present secretary will hand her duties to Miss Wilcox who is now serving as vice-president of the Y. W. C. A.

Treasurer-elect Betty Carter will follow Maude Brown in office who served as Publicity Chairman of the Y. W. C. A.

The new Commissioner, Carol Jordan, served as chairman of the Entertainment Committee of Y. W. C. A.

Frosh Carnival Plans Now Under Way

The Freshman Class is fairly humming with activity as plans for the traditional Carnival get under way.

Already the girls, led by Pat Peterson, Freshman Class president, are falling over themselves volunteering their services as members of the many, many committees that are to attack the real "what-have-we" and "where-with-all" of the coming Carnival.

Regardless of whether or not it was accidental or merely coincidental on purpose, the Freshies have chosen a perfectly wonderful date for their beneficial celebration. April 22 is the date set for the big affair—a time when April showers shall have bursted everything burstable into the radiant sunshine of glorious spring—a time when students and teachers alike shall trip across the green radiating the joys of being alive. And, lest someone forget, the Carnival will, as customary, take place in the Big Gym.

The following members of the Freshman Class are serving as committee heads: Skit, Manny Black and Dot Harrington; Crazy House, Kitty Bendall; Freak House, Leslie Law; Grab Bag, Midge Clapp; Puppet Show, Grace Cureton; Bingo, Barbara Apple; Decoration, Nancy Brooker; Advertisement, Sara Dodd; Ticket, Adele Barr; Booth, Prentice Vaughn; Food, Margie Smith, Sally Phyllis, and Phyllis Thompson; Cake and Candy, Betty Bowser, Lois Bowman, and Ruth Duffy; Main Feature, Shirlee Norwood; Dance Chorus, Winnie Lovette.

Who would have guessed that our own Miss Tribble and Dr. Sinclair have been officially chosen as fortune tellers for the occasion. What they won't be able to tell you really isn't worth worrying about. Cards, tea leaves, dice, or what have you, you really can't afford to miss finding out all of the many things you've always wanted to know about "you."

Pi Sigma Kappa Plans Banquet

Attractive and interesting plans are being made by the members of Pi Sigma Kappa, Speech Club, for their annual banquet to be held on Thursday evening, March 30, at the Stratford Hotel.

Dr. Edward Alvey, Dr. George Shankle, Dr. Richard Davis, Dr. Almont Lindsey, and Mr. Harold Weiss will be in attendance as guests of the club and will also contribute extensively to the entertainment of the evening.

Numerous recitations, readings, and musical selections will be given by the club members.

Science Club Enrollment Increased

The enrollment of the Science Club of Mary Washington College was considerably increased on Tuesday evening, March 21, at a regular monthly meeting of the club.

The following girls were admitted as official members: Nan Newman, Mabel Moffitt, Gail Smith, Virginia Locke, Virginia Ann Musick, Virginia Carpenter, Elizabeth Carter, Virginia Reel, and Ella Harrison.

The business meeting, presided over by Louise Harris, Science Club president, was given over to a general discussion concerning the Chapel program to be sponsored by the Science Club. It was decided that this program would be given for the Freshman Class. Due to the resignation of Henrietta Shanklin, secretary of the club, Hilda Clark was elected to fill the vacancy left by her.

Following the business transactions, the club members, accompanied by Myrtis Hall and her guitar, joined in group singing. Refreshments in the mood of Easter were served.

Freshmen Meet

To Nominate Prexy

Nomination for the Sophomore Class president of 1939-1940 were taken Tuesday evening, March 21, at a meeting of the Freshman Class in the college auditorium.

The following girls were nominated for this capacity: Becky Biddestone, Nancy Brooker, Barbara Apple, Marjorie Clapp, Virginia Henderson, Mary Halliburton, and Caroline Muirhead.

Election returns will be announced next week.

Nutcracker Suite To Be Dramatized May Day

Madam Mahamaluki Will 'Mind Read' April 14

On April 14th, at 8 o'clock, in Monroe Hall, a Vaudeville will be presented by Alpha Tau Pi. It will include a mind-reading by the famous Madam Mahamaluki. Other features of the program will be a dance band, jitter-bugs, acrobats, blues singers, and monologues. Plans are now under way to make this show one of the most unique ever to be given on the Hill.

Tickets are now on sale for the small sum of ten cents. Don't miss the opportunity of witnessing Madame Mahamaluki in her famous mind-reading act.

Alpha Phi Sigma To Entertain Dr. Weber

Dr. Valdo Weber, national president of Alpha Phi Sigma, will visit MWC's Gamma chapter of the fraternity early next week, it was announced recently. Dr. Weber is from Western State Teachers' College in Kalamazoo, Michigan. He will receive a warm welcome from the local members, who are eagerly anticipating an entertainment at which he will speak.

The annual Alpha Phi Sigma banquet was held on March 9 in the Gold Room of the Palm Grill, which was effectively decorated with red roses and white snapdragons. Between courses of the meal, dancing was enjoyed; the evening was climaxed by a theater party.

Dance Classes Will Participate In Colorful Affair

Mary Washington's May Day is almost all planned. Shall we have a preview? Well, this year it is going to take the form of a May Day Party and it has been adapted from the Nut Cracker Suite.

Mary is having a birthday party and the children bring her many gifts: dolls from Italy, France, Switzerland, and Moravia; tin soldiers, Jack-in-the-boxes, etc. But Mary's favorite gift is the Nut Cracker! Then for some fun the guests go on a Treasure Hunt. Mary, who stays at home so that she will be able to award the prize, fall asleep. She dreams that she becomes a Princess and when the Prince comes and finds her, they go dancing away to the land of the Sugar Plum Faries where they discover the Queen of these Sugar Plum Faries. The dolls from the various countries, the tin soldiers, the Jack-in-the-boxes—all come to life and they have a gay and joyous time. But the Princess soon becomes tired and falls asleep once again. The dolls, the soldiers and the Jack-in-the-boxes seem to move more and more slowly until finally they are motionless. Then the children return from the Treasure Hunt. They awaken Mary and all together they celebrate the May Day by dancing gayly round and round the May Pole.

The part of Mary and the Princess will be taken by Addibel Freeman. Betty Du Pre will be the charming Prince. And presiding over the court of the Sugar Plum Faries is Queen Sadie Sutton. All of the dances, etc. will be done by the classes in Rhythmic, Folk and Modern Dancing.

The fencing classes will be the toy soldiers and the tumblers will be Jack-in-the-boxes. The Glee Club under the direction of Miss Chauncey will sing many of the folk songs, and the orchestra under Mr. Faulkner's direction will play music from the Nut Cracker Suite to accompany the dancers.

Dr. Kirk is the General Chairman of the program; the dances will be directed by Miss Stewart, Miss Rogers, and Miss Sinclair. Miss Sinclair will direct the fencers who are the toy soldiers and Miss Rogers, the tumblers who are the Jumping-Jacks.

The Home Economics and Art classes are doing the colorful costumes with Miss Merrill and Miss Duggan. Mr. Weiss is in charge of staging the party and Dr. Moos of ushering. All of the publicity and printing will be attended to by Miss Rogers.

KEYHOLE KOMMENTS

Just in case you are knocked down, and not spoken to for the remaining part of the week—don't shed so many tears, it's all the excitement of German, those thoughts is he come? What shall I wear, etc!

May I ask—just who was on the hill for the week-end—seems to me I saw half the place in Richmond. Gee! Winnie Hudson, I know you are glad that holidays are given at the end of quarter—of course the reference is towards Gus being here!

Have you ever heard of "the little Easter bunny" bringing that certain ring with a well-known meaning. Now course I was peeking again but I know somebody that good old Bunny is going to visit!

Congratulations with all the trimmings to Ruth Cheshire who was elected president of the coming Senior Class!

Mystery is spreading around as to who can be that secret "candyman" of Winky Carpenter? We hear she had dinner with him last night and some say she's to see him again this Saturday!

Among the week-end guests was Miss Evelyn Hamilton who was here in '36.

Of all the fishes in the sea I'd rather have "Richard" says E. Evans.

We hear tell too that Virginia Hall girls were mighty glad V. P. I. had some holidays!

Not to mention that the new love is Nelson Eddy, since Tuesday night!

Good luck to Piney Foster who has recently gotten a job in Richmond. We'll say Piney you do well to get so close to Ashland!

We hear tell that you were kinder scared and feeling low on Monday night—is it so, Dot Cobb?

The end of exams resulted in a general exodus from the college. There's no use attempting to pick out all of the lucky girls who left, but those of us who stayed here know how lonely it was on the hill.

Marge McCulloch stayed on the hill, but she seemed to be doing all right just the same. She had one date Saturday night, another Sunday afternoon, and still another Sunday night. Not bad, Marge!

Rosalie and Andy seem to have reached the parting of the ways. Just when spring is just around the corner, too. Oh, well, this is a good time of year to start working on a summer romance.

Willie Rawlings and Billy Land just can't seem to get together. He came for her Saturday and stopped by to see Grundy while she was getting ready. Then when she got home she dated J. B. and let Billy date Mary George. What sort of an arrangement is this, anyway?

What's happened to Dinges and Buddy? Maybe it was one of those things too perfect to last. Still plenty of phone calls, but Dinges won't talk—over the phone or otherwise.

Mo Kent made up for all those nights she stayed up and studied this week-end. Nope, she didn't get the extra sleep, either.

Al may be the one, but Brooksie doesn't seem to mind being around Howard in the meantime. It happens every week-end now.

If Anne Parker doesn't stop talking about her date for the German, we'll probably be disappointed in him. Better wait until after he's on exhibition, Anne.

Among the gals who trucked up to Hampden-Sydney last week-end was Nancy Moseley. She'll be at home for a week recuperating from the effects of same—an abraded (sp?) tooth and the wearing of the green, meaning a Kappa Sigma pin.

Incidentally, Jeanne Meads stole the jump on all of us gals who went away for the week-end. She had THREE dates Sunday.

This week's orchids go to Lewis Timberlake who came in first among the snakes seen about Mary Washington College. It seems he is versatile with the gals as well as the books.

Barbara Vail seemed to be swinging into a budding romance Sunday afternoon. 50c for our Sunday supper, must mean something!!!!

We wish Vernon would make up his mind. Which one, chum—the suspense is killing us.

What has that freshman got that gets Watson Taylor up here so often? Ashland is a long way from Virginia Hall.

We hear Jackie will spend Easter in Florida—lots of fun but have the home-town boys lost their attraction?

We sure do miss Virginia Ludwig this quarter. Her pal Kay still seems to be carrying the torch for a certain midshipman. The Navy has DEFINITELY got something!!!!

Me, being the old curiosity hound, would like to ask a few questions: Why doesn't Margaret McCulloch ask Gus Brown to the German?

Why does Frances Brooks always prefer the quiet sports with Howard?

How does Mike get by with stringing Jackie and Lucille?

Why does Lucy Dickinson remind Rodney Freeman of a horse?

What did Frank Roberts say to Jinny Fliske over the phone Wednesday night?

Who was that blonde in dark glasses with Mo Kent Saturday night?

Why do the Mary Washington girls frown when you say Bobby Scott and sigh when you say Meatball?

How does Winnie Hudson live without Gus during the week?

Who is in the lead with Billy Lan? Willie Rollins or Grundy Clark?

Why did Bodwell bought so many new clothes the other day? (We hear she's planning to cut the Norfolk girls' throats).

Why we all have to miss that good ole gal, Jo Lee Fleet, so much?

When we will have finished eating that St. Patrick's day ice cream?

Why doesn't someone try studying by that marvelous light in front of Chandler?

What two Freshmen on the second floor of Willard smoke pipes?

The Interviewer Is Interviewed

Surprise! This week our talented columnist, Barbara Apple, who usually writes this article got herself in a muddle of work, so quick like a bunny we pulled a fast one on her and decided to interview her for her own column. The idea was all right but was it a job?

When I first approached her for an interview she laughed, but when she discovered I was in dead earnest she began to wail. "Nooo! It's mine! You can't write my column. Oh, please. However, I prelated and then she became stubborn. When I tormented her with questions, she compressed her lips in a ridiculously solemn line and said not a word, but continued with her short hand. (She'd just had a date and was trying to catch up on her home work.)

"When I asked, 'Where do you live?' she replied, 'None of your business.'"

At last in utter despair she flew out of the room to take a bath and I was forced to turn to her room-mate, with out whose help this could never have been written.

Barbara, who is usually called Bapple, is from Glen Ridge, N. J. No one will ever accuse her of being spoiled, as she has two sisters and a brother. In the rush I forgot to ask how old the brother is. I'm sorry, girls.

In high school she was active in many organizations; the dramatic club and the French and Latin clubs. She was art editor of the literary magazine and also of the school year book. I asked her about more art work in the future, but she replied that she seemed too busy to spend time on art although she would like to do so. Her favorite sports in high school were hockey and baseball. These and swimming are still her main interests athletically.

She has attended camp for seven years and this summer she will serve as a camp counselor at Camp Macline Mulford, Branchville, N. J. I talked to her about her camp position and she's proud as a peacock. Girls, she even has a contract and she very willingly showed it to me.

She had considered taking a commercial course when she completed high school but she was eager for college life. The catalogue from Mary Washington College was like a gift from heaven, she said, for she is combining college and a commercial course. As for college life, she says she loves it!

It's no wonder she enjoys college life as she is one of the most active members of the Freshman Class. She is a member of the Freshman Commission and often plans vespers services. For the Freshmen Benefit, which is to be in the form of a carnival, she is in charge of Bingo—and incidentally here is a good time to tell all you Freshmen to come out and get to work. It's YOUR benefit you know. Bapple is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and also a member of the Bullet Staff. Her first assignment for this column was to interview Frances Bolen, whose uncle is Jack Holt. The editor was so pleased with the results that she suggested that Bapple write a series of interesting personalities and that's how that started.

As to her future Barbara is undecided. She had once considered becoming a kindergarten teacher, but now she does not believe she is interested in that type of work.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HOW TO GET ALONG WITH PEOPLE

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low, persuasive voice. How you say it often counts more than what you say.
2. Make promises sparingly and keep them faithfully no matter what it costs you.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging thing to or about somebody. Praise good work done, regardless of who did it. If criticism is needed, criticize helpfully, never spitefully.
4. Be interested in others; interested in their pursuits, their welfare, their homes and families. Make merry with those that rejoice; with those who weep, mourn. Let everyone you meet, however, humble, feel that you regard him as one of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries, and disappointments under a smile. Laugh at good stories and learn to tell them.

Incidentally, Jeanne Meads stole the jump on all of us gals who went away for the week-end. She had THREE dates Sunday.

This week's orchids go to Lewis Timberlake who came in first among the snakes seen about Mary Washington College. It seems he is versatile with the gals as well as the books.

Barbara Vail seemed to be swinging into a Buding romance Sunday afternoon. 50c for our Sunday supper, must mean something!!!!

We wish Vernon would make up his mind. Which one, chum—the suspense is killing us.

What has that freshman got that gets Watson Taylor up here so often? Ashland is a long way from Virginia Hall.

We hear Jakie will spend Easter in Florida—lots of fun but have the home-town boys lost their attraction?

We sure do miss Virginia Ludwick this quarter. Her pal Kay still seems to be carrying the torch for a certain midshipman. The Navy has DEFINITELY got something!!!!

Me, being the old curiosity hound, would like to ask a few questions: Why doesn't Margaret McCulloch ask Gus Brown to the German?

Why does Frances Brooks always prefer the quiet sports with Howard?

How does Mike get by with stringing Jakie and Lucille?

Why does Lucy Dickinson remind Rodney Freeman of a horse? What did Frank Roberts say to Jinny Blake over the phone Wednesday night?

Who was that blonde in dark glasses with Mo Kent Saturday night?

Why do the Mary Washington girls frown when you say Bobby Scott and sigh when you say Meatball?

How does Winnie Hudson live without Gus during the week? Who is in the lead with Billy Lan? Willie Rollins or Grundy Clark?

Why did Bodwell bought so many new clothes the other day? (We hear she's planning to cut the Norfolk girls' throats).

Why we all have to miss that good ole gal, Jo Lee Fleet, so much?

When we will have finished eating that St. Patrick's day ice cream?

Why doesn't someone try studying by that marvelous light in front of Chandler?

What two Freshmen on the second floor of Willard smoke pipes?

The Interviewer Is Interviewed

Surprise! This week our talented columnist, Barbara Apple, who usually writes this article got herself in a muddle of work, so quick like a bunny we pulled a fast one on her and decided to interview her for her own column. The idea was all right but was it a joy?

When I first approached her for an interview she laughed, but when she discovered I was in dead earnest she began to wall. "Nooo! It's mine! You can't write my column. Oh, please. However, I persisted and then she became stubborn. When I tormented her with questions, she compressed her lips in a ridiculously solemn line and said not a word, but continued with her short hand. (She'd just had a date and was trying to catch up on her home work.)

"When I asked, 'Where do you live?' she replied, 'None of your business.'"

At last in utter despair she flew out of the room to take a bath and I was forced to turn to her room-mate, with out whose help this could never have been written.

Barbara, who is usually called Bapple, is from Glen Ridge, N. J. No one will ever accuse her of being spoiled, as she has two sisters and a brother. In the rush I forgot to ask how old the brother is. I'm sorry, girls.

In high school she was active in many organizations; the dramatic club and the French and Latin clubs. She was art editor of the literary magazine and also of the school year book. I asked her about more art work in the future, but she replied that she seemed too busy to spend time on art although she would like to do so. Her favorite sports in high school were hockey and baseball. These and swimming are still her main interests athletically.

She has attended camp for seven years and this summer she will serve as a camp counselor at Camp Macline Mulford, Branchville, N. J. I talked to her about her camp position and she's proud as a peacock. Girls, she even has a contract and she very willingly showed it to me.

She had considered taking a commercial course when she completed high school but she was eager for college life. The catalogue from Mary Washington College was like a gift from heaven, she said, for she is combining college and a commercial course. As for college life, she says she loves it!

It's no wonder she enjoys college life as she is one of the most active members of the Freshman Class. She is a member of the Freshman Commission and often plans vespers services. For the Freshmen Benefit, which is to be in the form of a carnival, she is in charge of Bingo—and incidentally here is a good time to tell all you Freshmen to come out and get to work. It's YOUR benefit you know.

Bapple is a member of the Y. W. C. A. and also a member of the Bullet Staff. Her first assignment for this column was to interview Frances Bolen, whose uncle is Jack Holt. The editor was so pleased with the results that she suggested that Bapple write a series of interesting personalities and that's how that started.

As to her future Barbara is undecided. She had once considered becoming a kindergarten teacher, but now she does not believe she is interested in that type of work.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HOW TO GET ALONG WITH PEOPLE

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low, persuasive voice. How you say it often counts more than what you say.

2. Make promises sparingly and keep them faithfully no matter what it costs you.

3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging thing to or about somebody. Praise good work done, regardless of who did it. If criticism is needed, criticize helpfully, never spitefully.

4. Be interested in others; interested in their pursuits, their welfare, their homes and families. Make merry with those that rejoice; with those who weep, mourn. Let everyone you meet, however, humble, feel that you regard him as one of importance.

5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries, and disappointments under a smile. Laugh at good stories and learn to tell them.

Mary Washington Fifth In Aquatic Meet

By now, you all have probably heard the results of the recent swimming meet held here and at William and Mary College. We are proud to announce that in the Southern Region Telegraphic Swimming Meet Mary Washington won fifth place. In the open meets at William and Mary, our swimming team placed second. Certainly, congrats are in order! We open our arms to the team composed of Margaret Gilman, Leslye Lowe, Roberta Lyon, Betty Bowser and Mary Elizabeth Welsh. Miss Sinclair, coach of the team, especially deserves to be included in the group. It was due to her excellent guidance that the team was able to accomplish such a feat!

Athletic Association News

On Friday, March 24, and on Tuesday, March 28, the A. A. will conduct the chapel program. The chairman of the spring sports will take this opportunity to present their plans for the spring activities. Since, without a doubt, most of you will be in attendance, I shall leave to the chairman the pleasure of telling you of their plans.

A. A. Election

Perhaps the most important of all A. A. Meetings will be held tonight immediately after dinner.

At this time the new president will be elected. All members please be present! Many of you girls are members and yet make very little or no effort to attend the few meetings of the A. A. Why bother to earn this membership if you're not interested? Consider the importance of this meeting and honor the club with your presence! Nita Stokes won't tell me much about the approaching A. A. benefit, but she advises us all to watch the bulletin boards and the Bullet for further publicity. It should be a good one so I suggest that we follow her advice.

DAWN

The golden peace of day begun
Ushers in before the sun
Has pushed past the night
And canceled the mist
By the moon lately glanced on
And tenderly kissed!
In the bounded still that so few know
I feel more at peace my breath should go
As the holiest hour of life prevail
As one is sent out, and have it avail
A faith to the soul and its home of sod
To sent it with peace to the feet of God.
—Marjory Garrison.

PORTRAIT

A green woolen sweater
Falls sharply from shoulders,
Straight and too thin,
Until it hangs long about her hips.

Bow-taut body stretched,
Face purposeful as an arrow-point,
She scornfully gazes
From green eyes.
